MY BATHROOM...

SUZIE DYSON

The general manager of contemporary bathroom design label Omvivo, believes your bathing zone is an opportunity to go bold

My best bathroom design tip is... Keep things uncomplicated and timeless but don't be afraid to be bold. Use one standout design element, such as marble mosaics or a unique basin, or mix a number of elements for a dramatic ambience.

What aspect of bathroom design do people often overlook? The fine details that finish a room, such as grout, tile colour, lighting, architraves and skirtings. They can turn a space from ordinary into something exquisite.

What's the most exciting development in bathrooms? Design has come a long way and the utilitarian intention of the past has given way to beautiful considered fittings and furniture. I'd avoid anything too fashionable if you want longevity, however I'm excited that Australians are much bolder with their choices in fittings and finishes. Suzie is a judge for the Reece Bathroom Innovation Award, where designers are focusing on bathroom furniture. Visit bathroominnovation.com.au.
